

8th Sustainable and Impact Investments International Conference (SIIC) 2025

The 8th edition of the Sustainable and Impact Investments International Conference will take place on January 14th & 15th 2025 at the Quinn School of Business at University College Dublin in Ireland.

The Conference was launched in 2017 by the Department of Management of the University of Rome “La Sapienza” as an annual meeting for international scholars, practitioners and policy makers involved in the impact finance field. Starting with the 2023 edition, the Joint Research Centre of the European Commission, GreenWatch (University College Dublin, UCD), SoGReS-MF (Jaume I University of Castellon), FINRES (UNED University of Spain) and Universität Hamburg are on board, joining the founding partners: Sapienza University of Rome, UnitelmaSapienza and CasmeF - LUISS Guido Carli.

The Conference offers publication opportunities and best paper awards, and engages high standing scholars and professionals. The Conference will host several outstanding keynote speakers, to be announced soon.

We welcome submission from a broad range of fields related to sustainability research including but not limited to sustainable finance, sustainability reporting, nature finance, green legislation, and any SDG.

Two special issues are connected to this year’s edition and the opportunity to publish in the Palgrave series:

- The British Accounting Review: ‘Accounting for Sustainable Finance: Legislating to Advance Impact and Mitigate Greenwashing’ (full call here)
- Sustainability Accounting, Management and Policy Journal: ‘Green Disclosure Regulations in Europe’ (full call here)
- Palgrave MacMillan Studies in Impact Finance (see here)
