“The Copenhagen Declaration”

29 and 30 November 2002

The following main priorities will be pursued through enhanced cooperation in vocational education and training:<sup>2</sup>

On the basis of these priorities we aim to increase voluntary cooperation in vocational education and training, in order to promote mutual trust, transparency and recognition of competences and qualifications, and thereby establishing a basis for increasing mobility and facilitating access to lifelong learning.

Maastricht Communiqué on the Future Priorities of Enhanced European Cooperation in Vocational Education and Training (VET)

29 October 2004

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION AND THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE MEMBER STATES MEETING WITHIN THE COUNCIL,

AGREE that

- v) the development and implementation of open learning approaches, enabling people to define individual pathways, supported by appropriate guidance and counselling. This should be complemented by the establishment of flexible and open frameworks for VET in order to reduce barriers between VET and general education and increase progression between initial and continuing training and higher education. In addition, action should be taken to integrate mobility into initial and continuing training.

The Helsinki Communiqué (2006) on Enhanced European Cooperation in VET

(Review of the Council conclusions of 15 November 2004)

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION AND THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE MEMBER STATES MEETING WITHIN THE COUNCIL,

EMPHASISE that

6. the diversity of European VET systems is an asset which serves as a basis for mutual learning and inspiring reforms. At the same time, this diversity makes it important to increase transparency and common understanding on quality issues, and hence mutual trust between VET systems and practices. The aim should be to promote a European VET area in which qualifications and skills acquired in one country are recognised throughout Europe, thus supporting the mobility of young people and adults.

Bordeaux Communiqué

THE BORDEAUX COMMUNIQUÉ

Make the concept of lifelong learning and mobility a reality

Workers, learners' and teachers' mobility, from one system to another, from one country to another should be promoted in VET systems. Citizens should be able to accumulate and transfer learning outcomes acquired in formal, non-formal or informal contexts so that those learning outcomes can be recognised thanks to the implementation of European tools for transparency and recognition of qualifications.

1. IMPLEMENTING THE TOOLS AND SCHEMES FOR PROMOTING COOPERATION IN THE FIELD OF VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING (VET) AT NATIONAL AND EUROPEAN LEVEL

The process has created major tools for improving the transparency of qualifications and promoting mobility. Insofar as they are based on a learning-outcomes approach and entail the use of quality assurance mechanisms for mutual trust, they have significant implications for national VET systems.

It is now essential to ensure they are implemented using appropriate methods and developed in a coherent manner.

It is important to:

2. Implement the future European Credit System for VET (ECVET), together with the future European Quality Assurance Reference Framework (EQARF), in order to strengthen mutual trust;

ECVET Recommendation

7 DECEMBER 2010

The Bruges Communiqué on enhanced European Cooperation in Vocational Education and Training for the period 2011-2020

I. NEW IMPETUS FOR VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING IN EUROPE

Quality and excellence

The diversity of European VET systems is an asset for mutual learning. But transparency and a common approach to quality assurance are necessary to build up mutual trust which will facilitate mobility and recognition of skills and competences between those systems. In the decade ahead we must give high priority to quality assurance in our European cooperation in VET.

III. STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES FOR THE PERIOD 2011-2020, FOLLOWED BY SHORT-TERM DELIVERABLES 2011-2014

4. Developing a strategic approach to the internationalisation of I-VET and C-VET and promoting international mobility

- (c) Participating countries should systematically use and promote European transparency tools such as EQF, ECVET and Europass to promote transnational mobility;

Policy context

Europe 2020 strategy

- Europe 2020 is the EU's growth strategy for the coming decade.
In a changing world, we want the EU to become a smart, sustainable and inclusive economy. These three mutually reinforcing priorities should help the EU and the Member States deliver high levels of employment, productivity and social cohesion.

■ Smart growth

- an economy based on knowledge and innovation requires:
  - improving the quality of education;
  - knowledge transfer;
  - openness and relevance of education systems by building national qualification frameworks;
  - better gearing learning outcomes towards labour market needs

■ Sustainable growth

- future skill needs; "skills for green jobs"

■ Inclusive growth

- implementation of lifelong learning principles; flexicurity

Strategic framework for European cooperation in education and training ("ET 2020")

- Significant progress being made:
  - in support of national reforms of lifelong learning;
  - the modernisation of higher education;
  - the development of common European instruments promoting quality, transparency and mobility;
- Strategic objectives:
  - Making lifelong learning and mobility a reality;
  - Improving the quality and efficiency of education and training

Policy context

Europe 2020 strategy

- IVET as an attractive learning option with high relevance to labour market needs and pathways to higher education;
  - Flexible systems based on the recognition of learning outcomes and supporting individual learning pathways;
  - Cross-border mobility as an integral part of VET practices;
  - Recognition of the mobility training experience has to be ensured through the use of ECVET;
- Validation of non-formal and informal learning provides pathways for up-skilling and reintegration of people to the labour market. The adoption of an outcome-based approach for vocational qualifications, as promoted by the EQF and ECVET, is key to achieving this;
- By 2020, systematic use of EQF, ECVET and Europass aimed at transparency of qualifications and portability of learning outcomes

- This consensus contrasts with the earlier frameworks. For example, Ireland's NQF has 10 levels. The UK (Scotland) NQF has 12. The French NQF is being revised from a 5 to an 8-level structure.
- Of the newer frameworks, Iceland's and Norway's both have seven levels. Slovenia has proposed 10.

The other Europass documents

Europass Mobility - A document to record knowledge and skills acquired in another European country

Certificate Supplement - A document describing the knowledge and skills acquired by holders of vocational training certificates.

Diploma Supplement - A document describing the knowledge and skills acquired by holders of higher education degrees.

National Europass Centres

In every country (European Union and European Economic Area), a National Europass Centre coordinates all activities related to the Europass documents. It is the first point of contact for any person or organisation interested in using or learning more about Europass.

Learn more »

- European countries are increasingly emphasising the need to recognise the full range of an individual's knowledge, skills and competences – those acquired not only at school, university or other education and training institutions, but also outside the formal system.
- This requires new approaches to validate such learning experiences (i.e. identify, document, assess and/or certify), making them usable for further studies or advancement in work. Helping people in this way could also make a contribution to smart, sustainable and inclusive growth.
- This is why the Commission has made a proposal for a Council Recommendation inviting EU governments to establish validation systems by 2015, linked to the European Qualifications Framework, including the possibility to obtain a full or partial qualification on the basis of non-formal or informal learning.
- The majority of EU Member States do not have a comprehensive validation system.

Proposal recommendation

- Ensure, by 2015, that a national system of validation of non-formal and informal learning<sup>27</sup> is established providing the opportunity for citizens to
  - Have their skills, knowledge and competences acquired through nonformal and informal learning, including via open educational resources, validated,
  - Obtain a full or partial qualification on the basis of validated non-formal and informal learning experiences
  - Ensure that the national system of validation of non-formal and informal learning includes the following elements: support, assistance, assessment, certification
  - Ensure synergie with ECTS and ECVET

Benefits of validation

- Systematic validation mechanisms would make clear which skills are available in the European workforce:
- facilitating a better match between skills and labour demand, addressing skills shortages in growing sectors
- promoting better transferability of skills between companies and sectors
- helping citizens move around the EU to live and work.

ESCO - European Skills/Competences, qualifications and Occupations

ESCO is the European multilingual classification linking skills and competences and qualifications to occupations and will be available to all labour market, education institutions and other stakeholders.

- Each pillar will have its own semantic structure.
- The occupations pillar of ESCO currently includes around 5 000 occupations, that are organised under the 390 unit groups of the ISCO classification. Since a repository of terms and a semantic structure already existed in the EURES classification it is the pillar of ESCO that is developed the furthest.
- The skills/competences pillar will contain two large groups of skills/competences: Job specific skills/competences and transversal skills/competences which are by nature cross-occupational.
- The qualifications pillar is under development, does not yet exist.
- Version pre-ESCOvO not yet published

What has to be done?

HEREBY RECOMMEND THAT MEMBER STATES:

1. promote the European Credit system for Vocational Education and Training ('ECVET') as set out in Annexes I and II at all levels of the EQF with reference to
2. create the necessary conditions and adopt measures, as appropriate, so that as from 2012 – in accordance with national legislation and practice, and on the basis of trials and testing – it is possible for ECVET to be gradually applied to VET qualifications at all levels of the EQF, and used for
3. support the development of national and European partnerships and networks involving institutions and authorities
4. ensure that stakeholders and individuals in the area of VET have access to information and guidance for using ECVET,
5. apply, in accordance with national legislation and practice, the common principles for quality assurance in VET set out
6. ensure that there are functioning coordination and monitoring mechanisms at the appropriate levels, in accordance with the legislation, structures and requirements of each Member State, in order to guarantee the quality, transparency and consistency of the initiatives taken to implement ECVET.

ENDORSE THE COMMISSION'S INTENTION TO:

1. support Member States in carrying out the tasks referred to in points 1 to 6 and in using the principles and technical specifications of ECVET as set out in Annex II, in particular by facilitating testing, cooperation, mutual learning,
2. develop users' guides and tools, and adapt relevant Europass documents, in collaboration with Member States, national and European experts and users; develop expertise for enhancing the compatibility and complementarity of ECVET and ECTS used in the higher education sector, in collaboration with VET and higher education experts and users at European and national levels; and provide regular information on the developments of ECVET:
3. promote, and participate together with the Member States in, a European ECVET network involving relevant VET stake-
4. monitor and follow up the action taken, including the results of trials and testing, and, after the assessment and evaluation of this action carried out in cooperation with the Member States, report, by 18 June 2014, to the European Parliament and the Council on the experience gained and implications for the future, including, if necessary, a review and adaptation of this Recommendation, involving the updating of the Annexes and guidance material, in cooperation with the Member States.

- The European definition of learning outcomes which uses the terms of knowledge, skills and competence (see EQF recommendation) is the common denominator that fits with the diversity of approaches to describing learning outcomes
- ECVET does not provide a template or a taxonomy concerning the format of learning outcomes descriptions. Such templates or classifications may exist at national, regional or system level (for example as part of a national qualifications framework)
- There are different approaches to identifying and describing learning outcomes depending on the qualifications system
- It is clear that application of the learning outcomes concept will vary, depending on whether the focus is VET, general or higher learning

Formulation of learning outcomes and steps of learning outcomes

“With reference to the representation of the learning outcomes, it was decided to abstain from differentiating them into knowledge, skills and competences. While this form of representation would correspond to the ECVET recommendation of the European Commission, learning outcomes should – following the agreement of the SME Master partners – reflect professional capacities in a comprehensive and transparent manner. A further division of the learning outcomes would have been contrary to both these claims.”

Units

The image features a dark blue horizontal band across the middle. The word "Units" is written in white, bold, sans-serif font on the left side of this band. The background is white, with a dark blue band at the bottom. Scattered across the white background are numerous rounded rectangles in various colors: blue, orange, green, red, and dark green. Some of these rectangles are solid, while others are outlined in a light blue color. The rectangles are of various sizes and are arranged in a somewhat random pattern, with some overlapping each other.

- A unit is a component of a qualification, consisting of a coherent set of knowledge, skills and competence that can be assessed and validated
  - Identify what learners can learn
  - Describe the learning outcomes that the learner is expected to achieve
  - It's feasible what is to achieve
  - The credit to this unit can be recognised

Units in relation to qualifications

- Depending on the existing regulations, units may be common to several qualifications
- or specific to one particular qualification

How can learning outcomes be grouped to create units?

- ❑ The learning outcomes relate to the same set of occupational activities/tasks

Units	Sub-Units
International Marketing	Market research and market planning on foreign markets
	Business information system
Export Selling	Prospecting and customer/partner follow up
	Negotiating
Import Buying	Identifying potential suppliers and sourcing
	Organising the negotiation
Managing International Trade Operations	Choosing and working with service providers
	Managing the international business administration
Working in a Multicultural Context	Business English language A
	Business foreign language B
	Intercultural management and communication

How can learning outcomes be grouped to create units?

- The fact that they are related to the same product or production technique

How can learning outcomes be grouped to create units?

- They can also be grouped according to the stages in the production process or process of performing a service
  - (Baltic education)

Unit 0:	Education (common studies and general capabilities)
Unit 1:	Paintwork
	Unit 1.1: Indoor
	Unit 1.2: Outdoor (Facade)
Unit 2:	Glue and Wallpaper work
Unit 3:	Object lacquering (and metal painting)
Unit 4:	Dam work
Unit 5:	Floor covering work
Unit 6:	Plasterwork (no preparation work)
Unit 7:	Dry mortarless construction work
Unit 8:	Designing and renovation work (specialisation)

How can learning outcomes be grouped to create units?

- They can be grouped in a unit because they relate to the same field of knowledge, skills or competence

Formative units of LO for mobility

- Units designed with a formative character
  - Units of LO only for mobility
  - Integrated part of the education and training pathway (documented learning outcomes achieved)
  - An additional certificate
  - Duration of practical training abroad is validated as part of the requirements (number of hours practice training)
  - The formative assessment for the module is recognised, but no part of the certification. It's part of the education and training pathway

Small units advantages

- Units can be obtained in a rather short period of learning and therefore are particularly suitable for geographical mobility
- They can also be suitable for adult learners who combine learning and employment or learners who are at risk of dropping out from longer programmes

Small units disadvantages

- Because of the greater number of units in a qualification, this approach implies putting in place a large number of assessments
- Fragmentation of qualifications and of assessments may make it more difficult to identify whether the learner can combine all the knowledge, skills and competence in a more complex manner

Large units advantages

- Assessment of a larger unit enables learners to demonstrate their capacity to combine knowledge, skills and competence in view of delivering a more complex service or a product
- The number of summative assessments is small

Large units disadvantages

- More substantial amount of learning activities is required to prepare for a unit. Hence it may be difficult to achieve a full unit in the context of a short transnational mobility period
- The duration of learning activities preparing for the unit may be too substantial for learners outside initial VET to be able to benefit from accumulation

ECVET points: technical specifications

Why do you need points?

- Motivation:
  - Additional info for labor market
  - Guidance for students
  - Pathway (transparency)
- (for the students, for the system, financial reasons, minimal points for progress)?

- What is the difference between ECVET points and credit?
  - ECVET points are not to be confused with credit.
  - Credit designates the learning outcomes the learner has achieved.
  - ECVET points provide information about the qualification and the units.
  - Credit is transferred and accumulated.
  - ECVET points provide information about the credit the learner has transferred and accumulated.

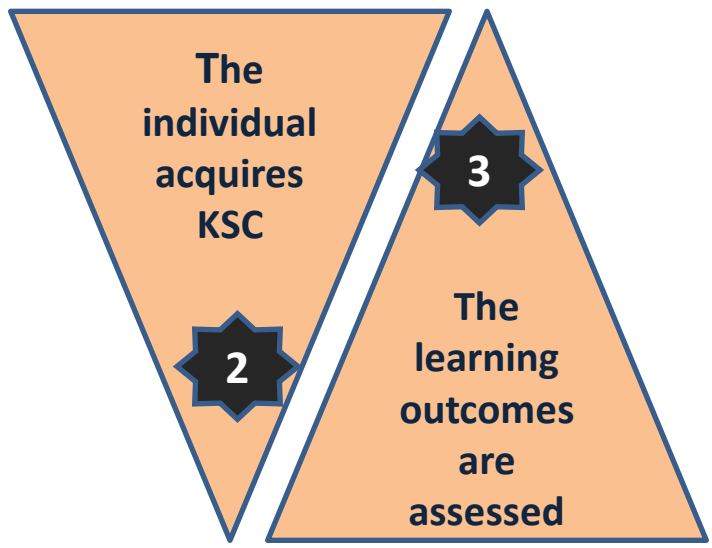

- Numerical representation of the overall weight of learning outcomes in qualification and of the relative weight of units in relation to the qualification.

ECVET points

- Allocation of ECVET points to a qualification is based on using a convention according to which 60 points are allocated to the learning outcomes expected to be achieved in a year of formal full time VET
- Each unit is allocated a number of points based on its relative weight within the qualification
  - The relative importance of the unit LOs for labour market, for progressions to other qualification levels or for social integration
  - The complexity, scope and volume of the unit LOs
  - The effort necessary for a learner to acquire the knowledge, skills and competence required for the unit

What is a Memorandum of Understanding?

- A MoU is an umbrella agreement
- A MoU is an agreement between competent institutions which sets the framework for credit transfer.
- It formalises the ECVET partnership by stating the mutual acceptance of the status and procedures of competent institutions involved.
- It also establishes partnership's procedures for cooperation

What is a competent institution?

- Institution which is responsible for designing and awarding qualifications or recognising units or other functions linked to ECVET, such as
  - the allocation of ECVET points to qualifications and units,
  - assessment,
  - validation
  - recognition of learning outcomes under the rules and practices of participating countries.

Strategy definition

- Creation of partnership
- Identification of competent institutions
- Elaboration of MoU
- Establishment of MUTUAL TRUST

Partnership Quality

Quantitative indicators need to be established such as:

- Number of learners in mobility
- Duration of mobilities
- Etc.

MoU examples

The background features a white space with a dark blue horizontal band across the middle. To the right, there is a cluster of overlapping rounded rectangles in various colors: blue, green, orange, and red. Some of these shapes are solid, while others are outlined in a light blue color. ## Memorandum of Understanding for the ASSET – ECVET Project

1. Objective
2. Identification of competent bodies involved
3. Identification of the qualifications concerned
4. Identification of the Accredited VET providers involved in this Memorandum of Understanding
5. Units which could be used during the mobility period
6. Conditions concerning the Learning Agreement between the VET providers:

Learning agreement

Learning agreement

- Learning agreement
- Agreement at operational level
  - Operational framework for mobility exchanges
  - More detailed information about the qualifications concerned, the mobility exchange and the conditions for assessment, validation and recognition of credit
  - The decision on who needs to sign such an agreement would also depend on the responsibilities of different actors within the qualifications system
