WHAT ARE MULTI-GENERATIONAL CENTRES DOING TO COUNTER LONELINESS?

PROGRAMME ITSELF COUNTERS LONELINESS

- The multi-generational centres are open to everyone and invite you to co-create.
- As such, they are able to strengthen social cohesion throughout Germany and counter the effects of loneliness.
- Almost all multi-generational centres (83% or 442 centres) specifically aim their offers at lonely people.

SPECIAL OFFERS TO COUNTER LONELINESS

'Which offers have currently been put in place against the conceptual background of loneliness?'

Offers with the conceptual background of 'loneliness'

TARGET-GROUPS FOR THE OFFERS

- The target-groups include people with limited formal (school) education, people with physical disabilities, working people and single parents (approx. 20-30% each).
- The target-groups that appear most regularly are younger seniors (65-80 years old, 90%) and very elderly people (older than 80, 85%).
- Children and youth (11-17 years old, 34%) and young adults (18-24 years old, 42%) are represented in the target-group for the offers to counter loneliness.

SUPPORTING THE MGH DURING THE PANDEMIC

2021: Corona project 'MGH digital & communicative'

- Two-part package of measures for supporting multi-generational centres in the establishment and further development of digital contact-infrastructures and remote offers.
- Additional federal subsidy of up to EUR 1,000 per centre (from 01.03.2021)
- Specialist support from the Verband für sozial-kulturelle Arbeit e.V. –VskA (Association for socio-cultural work).

2022: Specialist support 'MGH – digital, competent & innovative'

- In 2022, the MGH also received support from the VskA in the expansion and stabilisation of digital working methods and processes, e.g., by means of:
  - Consultation hours with tailored advice
  - Regular opportunities for exchange (digital learning environments) and expert talks (online workshops) for MGH employees to expand their digital competencies

WHAT DOES THAT LOOK LIKE IN PRACTICE?

Two multi-generational centres are cooperating to live-stream spring songs that they are singing with young and old people.

The MGH Bürgerhafen Greifswald called up the newsletter, the website and the local paper to write letters to lonely people in senior homes and care homes.

MGH Bad Oldesloe gave hand puppets the chance to speak via Facebook Videos and explain to children how they should wash their hands properly and do sport at home.

PROJECT 'MGH – TOGETHER & COMMITTED TO CHILDREN & YOUTH'

- Support in the framework of the campaign programme 'Helping children and young people catch up after Corona'
- Objective: Helping children and young people to catch up on development that was interrupted by the pandemic and strengthen their social skills
- Duration: July 2021 December 2022
- Measures
  - Replenishment of the Multi-Generational Centre Federal Programme Together For one another by EUR 10 million for 2021 & 2022 (EUR 3.5 million for 2021 and EUR 6.5 million for 2022)
  - 2nd half of 2021: Support for approx. 300 MGH with additional project funds of up to EUR 15,000 in each case; Specialist support from the Verband für sozial-kulturelle Arbeit e.V. (VskA) for all of the approx. 530 MGH
  - 2022: Support for over 360 MGH with additional project funds of up to EUR 20,000 in each case; Continuation of the specialist support from the VskA for all of the approx. 530 MGH

WHAT DOES THAT LOOK LIKE IN PRACTICE?

MGH Taufkirchen helped disadvantaged children and young people with the 'Fill in the gaps' campaign for questions about school and studying as well as social concerns.

The FLAKS multi-generational centre in Hamburg supports children and parents affected by the pandemic with the 'Children study, mothers relax' project.

SUPPORT FOR UKRAINIAN REFUGEES

- Almost 80% of centres were already working to support the integration of people with migration and displacement backgrounds before the war.
- From almost 60% of the centres that took part in the recent survey, almost 93% have provided support for people (and/or those helping them) who have been affected by the war since Russia invaded Ukraine.
- Almost two thirds (63.1%) of the MGH active in this field were able to find new staff for their centres as a result of their activities. 37.2% of refugees actively put themselves forward as volunteers in the MGH.
- Offers range from opportunities for meeting people to donation campaigns, language courses, consultation, finding private accommodation and interpreters, child support, psychosocial support through to active integration into the work of the MGH.
- The Federal Government is supporting multi-generational centres with EUR 700.000 until the end of 2022, each multi-generational centre can apply for funding of up to EUR 3,000
